Championship Classes: Classes numbered #500 and above are the 2022 IDS Championship classes. All entrants must be qualified per the rules of the IDS Year End Awards Program. Scores from Championship classes do not count toward the IDS Awards Program.

To be eligible for the IDS Awards program, the horse owner and rider must be current IDS members when scores are earned or join and pay the Retroactive Score Fee which can be submitted to allow horse owners and/or riders to unlock scores earned during a period where membership was not current.

You may check your qualification status in the “Qualified for Awards & Championships” section at: <https://www.indianadressage.org/membership/>

If you believe you should be qualified for one of these Championship classes, but are not listed, please confirm the status of the horse owner and rider membership, pay the Retroactive Score Fee if needed, and email points@indianadressage.org with questions.

Championship Rules: All Championship rides will abide by the following additional rules:

- Horses must be braided in English discipline Championship classes
- Formal dressage attire or Western attire is required in Championship classes
- No whips are allowed in Championship classes, but may be used in warm-up
- Championship rides must be ridden from memory without a caller
